

Press Release
Mesa, Arizona – February 25th , 2008

Enrolment is now open for Professional Development Workshops: A Modular Approach

On Monday February 25th 2008, JNT Consulting announced that the first classes for the FY08 Professional Development Workshops that will benefit professionals in different industries have been released and now available for enrolment. Details of the available Workshops can be found at: www.jntconsulting.com/workshops.html

These are Workshops that will enhance and develop current professional competencies of anyone who would like to pursue their continuing professional education in the global market specifically in the areas of Human Resources Global Relocation and Expense Management.

"We are delighted to provide these Workshops that will increase global education about concepts, applications, current trends and business practices within the global market" notes Juntee Terrenal, MA, GMS, President. This is a great opportunity to learn the ways to navigate the challenges of Global Program Management focused on International Relocation Management.
